about the artists

Distinguished Canadian conductor VICTOR FELDBRILL, O.C. returns to the University of Toronto to conduct the University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra. From 1968 to 1982 Maestro Feldbrill was Head of the conducting and orchestra programs at the Faculty of Music. He has conducted orchestras from across Canada, including serving as resident conductor of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and Music Director of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. He founded the Toronto Symphony Youth Orchestra and has been Professor of Conducting at Tokyo National University in Japan. He is an active guest conductor and teacher in Japan, the United States and Europe. Mr. Feldbrill has been the recipient of many awards and honours including Officer of the Order of Canada in 1986, and an Honorary Doctorate from Brock University in 1991. This coming December Maestro Feldbrill will be conducting in Taiwan for the first time in an all-Canadian program.

Pianist MARC PIERRE TOTH, finished the Master's Program at the University of Toronto as an Open Fellowship holder and student of Marietta Orlov. He was a full scholarship student at the European Mozart Foundation in Poland during the 1996-97 academic year, and received a Licentiate Diploma from the Royal Conservatory of Music in 1996. In 1995, he was the recipient of the W. O. Forsyth Graduating Scholarship from the University of Toronto. Marc Toth studied in Toronto with Boris Lysenko, and has worked with Jane Coop, André Laplante, Marc Durand, John Perry, Boris Zarankin, Helmut Brauss, Leon Fleischer, Gyorgy Sebok, Alexander Satz, Pnina Salzmann, and Seymour Lipkin. He has participated in festivals at the Banff Centre for the Arts, Kneisel Hall in Maine, and the Aria International Summer Program. Marc has appeared as soloist with the University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra, the Hart House Orchestra, and the Kitchener-Waterloo Chamber Orchestra. He has also performed in other parts of Canada, the United States, and Europe. He is continuing his studies in Hannover, Germany and will make his CBC Radio debut in November.
